

THE European Championships are coming to Stoke-on-Trent, thanks to Stoke City and Port Vale's community schemes. The clubs are involved in a

Premier League Kicks project which will allow 24 amateur teams from across the city to represent nations and play out their own championships.

It follows a similar World Cup tournament two years ago, and will be played at Powerleague in Stoke on June 4. The draw was made by Vale captain Carl

Dickinson, left, and Stoke stars Marc Muniesa, centre, and Marko Arnautovic at Burslem's Haywood Academy yesterday. Picture: Leanne Bagnall